April 2005, Issue 155

Share Session

Happy 2005, to all. I trust the roller-coaster weather of this past winter left us none the worse for wear.

The initial meeting of the 2005 season welcomed the ten who braved a cool evening: Harriett Rasmussen, Phyllis Beechert, Connie Teator, Mimi Weeks, Kathie Williams, Martha Turon, Dot Blenis, Larry and Dot Hesel, and Don Teator.

A variety of items filled this share session. Don brought two recent publications about the state's mountains. Even though Greenville does not specifically belong in either, the influence of the mountains is felt by many. The Adirondack Atlas: A Geographic Portrait of the Adirondack Park (Jerry Jenkins) is a stunning compilation of maps and history of the state's largest park. Although not as inclusive, The Catskill Forest: A History (Michael Kudish) also represents a benchmark of Catskills knowledge. (A thank you to Nick DiBrino for the loan of the Catskills book.)

Larry brought in a copy of a Hannay newsletter, the topic of one being the Blizzard of '58, an event many of you experienced. I'll try to make a copy for a future newsletter.

Phyllis brought in a memorial leaflet for Bill Vaughn (1998); an obituary of Rev. Charles Rice; the April 1990 Capital issue which highlighted Greenville, with photos of the Botsford house and the house on Carelas' Lake, as well as mentioning June Clark, Tom Briggs, Janice Pickett, and Tish Dalton.

Kathie brought in Daily Mail articles, mostly from the summer of 2003, covering Greenville's Beautification Project, the Greenville House Tour, missing WWII crew found, the Kiskatom tornado, fatal car crash on 9W, the rebirth of the Sugar Maples (Maplecrest), memories of 9/11, and Civil War monument with Ron Tunison and Doug Thomsen.

Kathie also brought in a listing of students' names from the Willowbrook school district, as recounted by Helen Kaiser Furmanek. This photo was one of our calendar pictures. The names included: Mary Francis, Irene Doherty, Fred Salsbury, John Parks, Lotti Parks, Hazel Parks, Watson Parks, Howard Boyd, Gordon Blenis, Donald Blenis, Elsa Kaiser, Helen Kaiser, Forty Alger, and teachers Madeline Cameron, Ethel McCarty, Jessie Boyd, and Miss Lull. (excuse any misspellings)

Harriett also contributed a book of Devotional Hymns from the Presbyterian Church. The inside book plate says it was donated by Mrs. Mary V. Talmadge, on June 1, 1944, "in memory of her husband Roswell Charles Talmadge."

Don showed the current calendar of the Westerlo Historical Society. The proximity of Westerlo means many of us know people only a few miles away from us.

All of the above led to stories and memories, an usual occurrence for any GLHG meeting.

Kathie also contributed a Greene County Directory for 1892. These directories listed residents of the towns and villages, officials of the municipalities, etc. Especially interesting, along with the listing, is the other information given. A copy of the Greenville section is reproduced. I suspect you will recognize many names.

The next meeting is May 9. We'll try to connect and comment on the names in the 1892 directory, some of whom are quite recognizable and some who leave wondering who they are.

Take care,
