1910 Census

I think summer is finally here, after a fit or start of weather that threatened to act as if it were a couple of months earlier! Attending the May 9 meeting were Jeanne Bear, Connie Teator, Martha Turon, Phyllis Beechert, Mimi Weeks, Dot Blenis, David and Harriet Gumport, David Rundell, Ron Golden, Walter Ingalls, and Don Teator.

Most of the evening was in reference to the 1892 Directory of Greenville names you read in the last newsletter. The intentions of perusing the families of that year was supplanted by perusing the names of individuals found in the 1910 census, copies of which were brought to the meeting. (Want a copy? Let me know and for three dollars postage, I can get you one. If picked up, you can have one for no cost.)

Thus, we spent most of the meeting, recalling names and families, with connections to today and our memories. I have reprinted a few pages I thought would be of interest to some readers.

(The column headings are: dwelling #, family #, surname, first name, relation to head of household, sex & race, age, marital status, # yrs married, # children, # children living, nativity of self – father – mother, occupation, and other notes I made.) There's one error in the Butler family I need to fix – a first name.

The rest of the meeting consisted of some "share" items.

I had a photo of an Ingalls "cousin" reunion from the early-mid 1950s, and Walter helped identify all but a handful of the fifty people present.

Dave and Harriet brought in some research about the Knowles, Spees and Lake families as it pertained to their homes before Greenville. I'll try to condense it for a future newsletter.

The Gumports also brought correspondence and info about Edwin Drake (early oil founder), trying to determine if the historic marker by the pond is really credible. Early signs seem to indicate so and I'll try to put that in written form in the near future.

David Rundell contributed Communion Seasons and Songs, by E. Deyo Van Dyck, the pastor of the Presbyterian Church from 1893-1928.

Phyllis brought in the memorial sheet for Porter Wright who died this past January.

The next meeting is June 13, which will be a share session. (I will keep trying to get Richard Ferriolo and his two contributions to Greenville's written history (veteran's book, school history).)

NOTE: The Library is planning a fundraiser, with a tour of the Prevost Manor (aka, Hush-Hush) on June 18 in the afternoon. The Manor House is one of the most significant houses in the Town of Greenville.

Take care,
